DEFINITION OF DEPENDENT ELIGIBILITY

A dependent is:

- An eligible Employee's legal spouse (husband or wife).
- All of the eligible Employee's dependent children, including any foster children, step-children, or adopted children between the date of birth and up to 26 years of age.
- "Foster children" shall mean any child for which an Employee becomes legally obligated by a court of competent jurisdiction to perform the duties of a parent to the child of another by rearing the child as his own.
- Dependent children who are primarily dependent on the employee because of physical or mental disability may be continued as eligible dependents provided the dependent was covered immediately prior to their 26th birthday and the incapacity occurred prior to their 26th birthday. Proof of such incapacity must be provided to the Trust.
